SOCIETY THIEVES PEST OF LONDON

Detectives Are Powerless to Catch Drawing-room Miscreants.

MARRIED COUPLE SUSPECTED

Hostesses Who Have Missed Jewelry and Valuable Trinkets Kefuse to Voice Their Suspicions.

LONDON, July 21.-Every one wants to know who the titled thieves are who have been carrying off jewelry from wedding receptions and small objects of art from houses where balls have been given. For the past six weeks hostesses been complaining to Scotland Yard. The detectives are practically certain that it is a married couple moving in the highest circles, but they decline to breathe their names at present, Commissioner Henry, the head of the police, is seriously considering obtaining the services of clever young society men to act as "Sherlock Holmeses." He admits that his own detectives who stand about at wedding receptions are so obviously detectives that any thief would thow them. In no previous season has there been such a number of barefaced thefts at private functions.

At the Duchess of Devonshire's ball there were these uncomfortable looking detectives in very light evening dress sults. The size of their hands and feet was quite enough to make them "mark-

Gathering Data on Cromwell.

Samuel Harden Church, of Pittsburg, who arrived at the Carlton Hotel this week, after spending a week at Skibo Castle with Andrew Carnegie, is engaged in collecting material for a new work on Oliver Cromwell.

Mr. Church's history of the great Protector, published twelve years ago, is regarded as a standard work, even among English historians. Mr. Church has visited a number of towns associated with Cromwell's campaign against the Cava-liers, and he has had access to a number of very valuable documents in the possession of the descendants of the Cromwell family, which are said to throw a new and interesting light on the personality of the Protector.

Mr. Church is also making extensive researches at the British Museum.

Son Objects to Father's Peerage. Hubert Beaumont, M. P., who married the eldest daughter of M. P. Grace, o Battle Abbey and formerly of New York is extremely annoyed about the last Birthday Honors List. His father, Wentworth Beaumont, who is over eighty years of age, has twice in his long and active business and political career, re-fused a peerage and now he has accepted one, although his Radical feelings are as strong as ever.

Hubert Beaumont, one of the mo radical of Radicals, was very proud of his father's stubborn resistance to the temptation of titles, and he is sorely packed with the best of aristocracy, and disappointed. It is not, however, the the most exclusive set of American fault of the old gentleman, who has been society in the French capital. worth Beaumont, jr., whose wife, Lady Aline, a sister of the Marquis of Londonderry, was very anxious for her husband to become a peer. The Radical Hubert now becomes much against his will the "Honorable Hubert."

The new peer is said to be the fourth vealthiest man in the kingdom.

Can You Beat This?

SURETY LOAN CO., Room 1, Warder Building, Corner Ninth and P Streets. Phone M 2909

Ask your lawyer, landlord, or banker. We are making leans every day to parties sent direct from National Banks. Why? Because we are not in the Trust; because we do as we advertise and because we are enemies of the high priced 10% money sharks. Look at the following rates. A child can understand them:

$15 only $7c per mo.
$25 only $1.23 per mo.
$25 only $1.29 per mo.
$25 only $2.65 per month.

If you pay a newspaper they will advertise anything. Don't be misguided or secure a loan until you have consulted us. A postal will bring our representative to your door.
